Cardiff born Dale Hutchinson began and developed his early career at local club Cardiff & Met HC. Whilst studying at Cardiff Metropolitan University, he made his debut for Wales against Spain in 2014, aged 19.

Following his studies, he had brief spells at BH & BC Breda and Reading HC before joining Dutch Premier League club HC Tilburg for two successive seasons. He has since returned to home club Cardiff & Met HC.

Dale has been a regular in the Welsh team since his tournament debut back in 2015, competing at several major tournaments. He was a part of the successful side who gained back to back European Championship promotions, competed at the 2018 Commonwealth Games in Australia, and helped secure their current position in the European A Division in Antwerp, 2019.
