Xenna made her senior international debut against India in Women's Champions Challenge I. Since then, she has played in many major tournaments including two Commonwealth Games and several European Tournaments. A versatile player, that has seen her play as both a forward and a defender throughout her playing career.

Xenna has spent many seasons playing in the top league in the country seeing her team reaching the playoffs three times. After living in London for 4 years, Xenna moved back north to study a Masters in Sports Rehabilitation where she joined Bowdon Hightown HC.
